4 Easy New Year's Job Resolutions to Keep

Whenever a new year rolls around, we tell ourselves we're going to revamp our lives. We sit down and create a long list of lofty, unrealistic goals. By the end of January, the list is already neglected - barely having made progress on a single item on the list.

This year, don't overly commit to tasks you will never complete. This will only make you feel like a failure and add to your stress.

Instead, stick to a few simple things that are easier to maintain and can be implemented started today.
