Alexander Hamilton Wins the $10 But Does Diversity Lose?

The recent announcement that Founding Father Alexander Hamilton will remain on the face of the $10 bill has sparked much controversy. The $10 bill is the first bill scheduled for a redesign in 2020, and many wanted to see a woman on the face of the next bill. Instead, the back of the bill will feature five female suffrage leaders, and abolitionist leader Harriet Tubman will replace Andrew Jackson the $20 bill in 2030.

But does diversity really lose with this outcome – with

Bring Back Dodgeball? Coddling = Poor Workplace Coping Skills

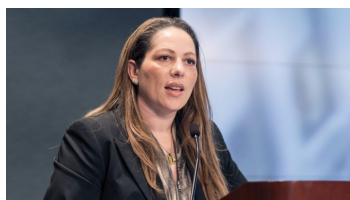

Over the years, there has been a growing movement to eliminate games like dodgeball from school playgrounds. Some believe these kinds of games are too harsh for kids – especially in this era where everyone gets participation ribbons even when their effort is mediocre. Not only are sports like dodgeball fun, but they teach us about life.

Here are six very important life lessons from competitive schoolyard sports.
