Jennifer Lawrence is Right! Hollywood = Wage Inequality

When Sony was hacked in 2014, arguably by North Korea, it opened up Hollywood's Pandora's Box of dirty little secrets. Not only were some executives exposed as being snarky and possibly racist, but it also revealed honest truths about how women are perceived in the film industry and underpaid relative to men.

Fired Up on the Streets...Not in the Boardroom Is Corporate America Missing the Mark?

"Hands up, don't shoot!" symbolizes the terror some Americans feel when encountering a cop. We see outrage and violence in the streets with high-profile cases like those of Michael Brown and Freddie Gray. While many people have protested the unjust actions against people of color, there has been slightly less noise made over inequality in the corporate world.
